Off-Campus access to resources

Many resources Miller Library subscribes to are available full-text anywhere through an internet connection. When off-campus, however, you will be asked to login with your name and “Disciplenet” number. Your Disciplenet number consists of your first initial (lower case), number zero and the last six digits on your Student/Faculty ID card. For example Joe Smith - j0123456. This is the same login used for your email and access to Odyssey.
